Obituary

Hattie Colley Cooper was born February 2, 1906 in Talladega, Alabama, to the late Nathaniel and Dora Colley. She accepted Christ at an early age and joined New Hope Baptist Church in Hobson City, Alabama, where she served as a faithful member until she moved to New Haven, Michigan. She united with New Hope Baptist Church in New Haven, Michigan and later joined Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Port Huron, Michigan.

She was united in marriage to Frank Cooper on November 15, 1947.

She leaves to mourn her passing a devoted husband, Frank Cooper; a nephew- Leroy Colley (Pat); two nieces- Evelyn Curry (James); and Betty Buggs, all of Cleveland, Ohio; and a host of great nieces, nephews and cousins.

She was predeceased in death by her brother, Monroe Luther Colley, Sr., two (2) nephews- Monroe Colley, Jr. and James Colley, Sr., and a niece- Jereline Reynolds.

God saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb
He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered 'peace be thine'
The weary hours, the days of pain
The sleepless nights are past
The ever patient worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last

AFTERGLOW

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.
