WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT ON A TYPICAL SUNDAY

- Expect... to be greeted by people who actually care about you. This is more than a friendly and welcoming church. It's a loving church. Big difference!
- Expect... to feel part of the service no matter where you sit. You'll never be too far away from the anointing and the moving of the Holy Spirit.
- Expect... the Spirit-filled praise, along with the sweet communion and fellowship of the Saints. That's because we're all there to worship our audience of ONE: God Himself.
- Expect... your kids to come out of Sunday school knowing more about God than they did when they went in. And hopefully, they'll also come out loving God more too.
- Expect... clear, precise, easy to understand, preaching and teaching from the Bible. God will truly touch your life using His preached Word. Pastor Mack makes the scripture come alive and speaks the truth in love.
- Lastly, Expect... that in the big picture, God will help you settle into a place where you can not only learn and worship, but can fill a need—A PLACE TO BELONG.

PASTOR JOHN L. MACK

Pastor John L. Mack has served as Pastor of Greater New Hope Missionary Baptist Church for the past twenty (20) plus years. He is married to Sister Brenda Joyce Mack and has seven children: Renee, Kristal, Janetka, John, Isabella, Jelise, and JaKelle; six grandsons, Jyalre, Ivaon, Jordan, Lemari and twins Jaedyn and Jeryn; and one granddaughter, Jeklah. Pastor Mack is a born-again, God-called, God-ordained, God-sent preacher of the Gospel of Christ. By the power of the Holy Spirit working through Pastor Mack, these years have been years of great spiritual and physical growth for Greater New Hope.

Pastor Mack is a man with a big heart, and a deep abiding compassion for all people. He is swift to help and slow to criticize. He has dedicated his life to the Gospel Ministry, ministering to the needs of the total man. In spite of all the many wonderful works he has accomplished, he is most content when he is motivating people and ministering to their needs through the Word of God. Jesus once told his disciples, "...he that is greatest among you, let him be your servant..." Based on this scripture alone, Pastor Mack's greatness stands out when measured by his service.
